Retainer Agreement for Professional Services

Dear Mr. Alikhani:

It was a pleasure speaking to you today. The purpose of this retainer letter is to describe the terms of our legal representation.

1. Description of Services. We will advise on certain legal issues concerning the appeal in Hossein Alikhani v. U.S., now on appeal in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit. In addition, we will ascertain whether any persons may be interested in assisting in any way in the appeal, including as an amicus curiae.

Because of the requirements of the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA), we will register with the U.S. Department of Justice once you sign and return to us the signed copy of the agreement and pay the initial retainer.

2. Professional Fees. Our fees for these professional services will be charges as follows: Fees of $240.00 on an hourly basis for all professional services rendered by me; standard hourly rates if any other professionals subsequently become involved.

3. Reimbursable Expenses. Reimbursement will be required for our out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with our services, including the expense of any long distance telephone calls, filing fees (e.g., with the Department of Justice under FARA), special postage, photocopies, computer research, transportation, transcripts or other expenses incurred on your behalf.

4. Initial Retainer. The firm normally requires an advance of one-half of the initial month's estimated fees. Because of our prior professional relationship, we request an advance of $10,000.00 against the initial work. Once it is exhausted, we will request an additional advance against future work.

5. Monthly Statements. All fees for professional services and reimbursable expenses will be billed monthly and are payable upon receipt of the statement.

6. Managing Attorney. The undersigned attorney shall be the managing attorney responsible for supervising the professional services to be rendered.

If the foregoing meets with your approval, please sign the Agreement and return it to me. If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact me.

Sincerely,

CAMERON & HORNBOSTEL
